POLITICAL MOVES.

THE ALLIANCE CLUB CONSIDERING THE LEGISLATIVE SITUATION.

Democratic Organization in the City-Ward Meetings Held Last Night-Action Taken.

The Alliance Club, which is the Reformers' great political organization here, held a meeting of more than orball, on the north side of Broad street between Foushee and Brook avenue. The attendance was quite large, and many newly elected members presented came up or down Broad street they would ask to be directed to the hall, thus disclosing their unfamiliarity with the location of this now famous meeting-place of the Reformers. None but members were admitted, and all who were approached when they came out said they were bound to secrecy. None would tell what was the object of the meeting or what was done, but it was pretty generally understood, nevertheless, that the business of the evening. besides being largely congratulatory on the alleged successful working of the organization, was to decide whether the club should in the approaching campaign operate so as to secure the support of the Republicans. This party has been diligently cultivating the good will and graces of the Alliance men, and numbers of them belong to the club. Last night the meeting was Henry C. Nelson, of Manchester, died in session about an hour and a half, and night before last at midnight after a while it is not known what action, it any, was taken, the outside idea is that they will nominate a legislative ticket and that they will have the aid of the Republicans. Justice Ryall, president of the Common Council, John S. Bethel, and Mr. Rowland Hill continue of the four gentlemen upon whom the honors of commission will fall. At the last meeting of the City Demo-cratic Committee an executive committee of twenty citizens was appointed to co-operate with the City Committee in the conduct of the present campaign. The Executive Committee has been organized by the election of Hon. J.

Paylor Ellyson as chairman and Cap- trip. tain George A. Ainslie as treasurer.

The committee are industriously at work devising plans by which they can most effectively aid the City Committee. Sub-committees have been appointed to visit the ward clubs and sequaint them with the plans of the ration in the methods which may

It was resolved that a mass-meeting be held in Corcoran Hall on Thursday night the 23th instant, and that the other clubs of the city, and especially Fulton and Union clubs of this ward, be invited to attend in a body. On motion the club resolved to attend

SOUTHSIDE REPUBLICANS.

Meet in Manchester To-Day.

The Republican senatorial and legi tive nominating conventions to be ld in this city to-day promise a lively ime. There are a number of candi-lates in the field, and the contest pronises to be exciting. Several colored datesmen came down from Powhatan yesterday, among the number Lewis, who is an aspirant for the nomination for the Hense from that county. He ays Mr. Flanagan is mentioned as a probable candidate, but he does not think his name will be presented before the convention. The Goochland dele-cation will reach Richmond this mornog by the Alleghany accommodation

Charles Harris (colored), who has been chairman of the Republican party in this city for several years, will call the senatorial convention to order at 1: 'clock, and as soon as the nomination is made the legislative body will meet Harris said yesterday afternoon that the convention will be held in O.I.I Fellows' Ball, on Twelfth street, instead of the colored Methodistchurch on the turnpike, as stated yesterday by request of one of the delegates. Most interest is felt in the nomination for the Senate, for which Mr. M. R. Lloyd, of Manchester, and Major Joseph Walker, of Chesterfield, are mentioned. If the latter is nominated, and the in-dications are that he will be, it is pro-bable that Mr. Lloyd will be tendered the House nomination.

There was a great deal of caucusing done in the upper part of the city and in the edge of the county last night. Mr. Lloyd and his friend and supporter, Mr. Tyson, president of the Manchester Reform Club, were there and used all of their persuasive powers. Other aspirants and their friends were also on

The New American Party. [By telegraph to the Dispatch.] Philadelphia, September 16.—The irst convention of the newly organized American party was held in this city for the purpose of nominating a national ticket. About 150 delegates were present and a permanent organization was quickly effected by the election of W. Horace Hepburn, of Philadelphia, as chairman, and J. M. Munyon, also of this city, as secretary. After the organization had been completed a motion was made that a committee of thirteen on resolutions be appointed, and that all resolutions offered be referred to the committee without de bate. The motion caused quite a row, in which George F. Edgar, of New York, was the chief figure on the opposing side. He declared that the purpose of the motion was entirely un-American and savored strongly gag law. After a spirited debate the motion prevailed and Edgar promptly left the hall as an expression of his dissatisfaction. Ex-Senator Pomeroy, of Kansas, addressed the delegates and convention will continue in session tocorrow, when it is expected by the officers that there will be a much larger attendance of delegates.

On Wednesday night he put the finishing touches on the poem which he in tended to deliver at the laying of th corner stone of the Lee monument in Richmond next month, and on Thursday placed the manuscript in the hands of the copyist. This seemed to give him great satisfaction, and he expressed himself as much relieved that the work was done, and said to a friend and I wish it was at once and not more than a month off." The poem is a sub-lime production, and if it could have been pronounced by the author would have been worthy of the grand occasion.

> The Third Race Results in Her Selection to Defend the

(By telegraph to the Dispatch.)
NEW YOUR, September 16.—The third attempt to have a trial-race to choose the ablest yacht as the defender of the America's cup against the Scotch This le resulted in one of the finest contests ever seen in these waters. There was a strong wind blowing from north to north-northwest all day. It reached a velocity of thirty miles an hour. Added to the splendid condition of the ele-ments was the excellent judgment of the committee, who decided, after the yachts got under way, that a triangular race should be sailed. That decision gave the contestants a course of thirtyeight miles to sail over, with the wind on every hand. They had a run to leeward of ten miles, a stretch of nine niles, and the return, a beat for home of six miles at every turn and in every of the run to leeward, when the May-flower sailed better than the Volunteer, the latter beat her opponent. The outcome of the day's race was that the Tolunteer was chosen by the America's Cup Committee, who judged the event from the flagship Electra, to meet the Thistle in the international contest The Thistle was out, too, but her landling was of such kind du-ring the first half of the race as to give no idea what she could do After that she was evidently sailed for all the was worth with a foul bottom, and under the conditions was outsailed by both the Mayflower and Volunteer. The official table of figures made by the judges was as follows: Volunteer, start 11:11.57, finish 3:32.46 1-5—elapsed time 4:20.49 1-5; Mayflower, start 11:14.43, finish 3:51.34 4-5—elapsed time 4:36.51 4-5. There was no corrected time figured, as neither yacht had been measured, and as the time allowance would have probably been less than a minute the result could not have been effected.

the St. Petersburg chief of police, whose assassins were but recently sentenced to death. "On a Saturday in the first weeks of the year 1883," he writes. "La Perichole was performed in the Demidoff Theatre at Moscow I had a seat in the first row, directly behind the orchestra, and next to me sat a police officer who seemed to know verybody. It was Colonel Sudeikin, a handsome young man of elegant appearance, whose faultless military dress was very becoming to him. A singer had just finished the famous romanza of the letter when flame was seen to shoot up be-tween the wings on the left side. Fire!' I called to the police officer We are lost, sitting as we do behind the orchestra, far from the exit, in this wooden structure.' 'Don't budge,' ne called, drawing a revolver with one hand and violently pressing my arm with the other, simultaneously jumping upon his seat. Menacing the crowd STAUNTON, VA., September 16.—M.

There was a complete cessation of business in the city, and this was the rule throughout the State of California.

In San Francisco the buildings were heavily draped and flags were displayed at half-mast from all public and numerous private buildings. The remains lay in state for two days in Pioneer Hall, Governor Bartlett having arrived in the city in 1849. After the reading of the Episcopal burial service at Grace church a public escort preceded the body to the theatre had been emptied so quietly that it was possible even to remove coats and furs from the cloak-room into the open air. At the moment of our leaving the officer preceded me, saying: 'As a stranger you may have the honor of having been the last to leave the building.' The whole occurrence, which to me seemed endless, had lasted barely ten minutes. A quarter of an hour later the flames had completely devoured the theatre."

A RUNAWAY RACE-HORSE.

Mile. Cassini's Pincky Ride on a Had Horse at Freehold. An Asbury Park special says: The thirty-fourth annual fair of the Monmouth County Agricultural Society closed at Freehold this afternoon. The closing event of the track was a halfmile running race, best two out of three, between Mile. Loui Cassini, a stout blonde, who was formerly one of the most popular female riders of Forepaugh's Wild-West combination, plunged madly around the track a second time with the bit in his teeth. The horse seemed to be wild and continued on around the track, while men shouted to stop him and to encourage Mile. Cassini to keep in the saddle.

As the horse passed the judges stand for the fifth time it was evident that his rider was losing strength. Her blue silk jockey cap fell off and her long brown hair straightened out be-hind her head like a veil. On his seventh round the horse, too, showed signs of failing. He was not stopped until he had run three-and a quarter miles. Mile. Cassini was lifted from the sad-dle, and the crowd cheered. Her habit was flecked with blood from her lips and her finger-tips were blue. In an hour she was able to walk. Several women fainted from excitement while she was being carried about the track by her mad horse. Zampa was raised by Mr. D. D. Withers and raced under his colors for two years. General Brialmont, aid-de-camp to the King of the Belgians and "Inspec-tor-General of Engineering and Forti-

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING-Christian Freeman: We would by no means renot know to be good-particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing-Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it the parents' unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the
